

RESOLUTION NO. 4180

A RESOLUTION OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF SOLEDAD PROVIDING RETROACTIVE APPROVAL OF THE SOLEDAD POLICE OFFICERS
ASSOCIATION'S REQUEST FOR USE OF THE COMMUNITY CENTER FOR ITS ANNUAL FUNDRAISING EVENT AND AUTHORIZING USE OF SIX CITY HOURS

WHEREAS, in January of 2005, the City Council approved an additional five-year Management Agreement with the YMCA to oversee programs and maintenance of the Soledad Community Center; and

WHEREAS, based on the agreement, the City of Soledad has unlimited use of the Community Center for City and City sponsored events and up to fifty (50) hours for Non-City sponsored events; and

WHEREAS, the Soledad Police Officers Association has requested use of the Community Center for a period of six (6) hours to help offset the cost of its annual fundraising event held on Saturday, March 1, 2008; and

WHEREAS, the City Council believes that the event, whose proceeds are returned to the community in the form of scholarships, donations and other charitable contributions to local schools and organizations, is of benefit to the Soledad community at large.

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT HEREBY RESOLVED that the City Council of the City of Soledad does hereby retroactively sponsor the Soledad Police Officers Association fundraising event and agrees to authorize the retroactive use of six (6) hours for said event held on March 1, 2008.

PASSED AND ADOPTED by the City Council of the City of Soledad at a regular meeting held on the 5th day of March 2008, by the following vote:
